

Call for applications

The IIA Luxembourg is looking for volunteer Board members to join the IIA Luxembourg Board of Directors and wanting to contribute to the advancement of the Internal Audit profession in Luxembourg through active participation and contribution to our activities.

There are 3 open positions. One position is open for a professional of the fund industry exclusively (see specific requirements below). The other 2 positions may be filled in with professionals from other industries. One of those positions is aimed at leading our training program development

(The IIA Luxembourg reserves itself the right of not filling in the positions if no suitable candidate is found).

Requirements:

- Internal Audit professional currently active in Luxembourg with a minimum of 10 years internal audit experience.
- Desire to share knowledge and organize meaningful events for the Luxembourg Internal Audit community and support the overall institute's training and conference efforts.
- Be innovative and solution oriented.
- Be a member of IIA Luxembourg
- Specific requirement for the fund industry:
 - o Current or past background in the investment funds, service provider financial institutions or PFS, and/or management companies required.
 - o Established professional network within the Luxembourg financial industry and funds ecosystem necessary. Past or current involvement in or relationship with Luxembourg industry associations, regulatory bodies and service providers a plus (CSSF, ALFI, ALRiM, ALCO, ILA, Audit & Consulting firms, Law firms, etc.).
 - o Availability to act as a chair/co-chair of the IIA Luxembourg Other Financial Institutions/Funds/Management Companies Working Group.
 - o Strong expertise in the investment funds, service provider financial institutions or PFS, and/or management companies' AML/CTF obligations and market practices desirable, as the role may involve representing IIA Luxembourg in related expert working groups coordinated by the Regulator.

If you are interested in joining the IIA Luxembourg Board, please send your CV and motivation letter to president@iia.lu no later than 24 February 2023.

If you have any question, please do not hesitate to contact us.
